Richard Henry Warren, organist of the Church of the Ascension, will play the prelude and Arthur S. Hyde, organist of St. Bartholomew's, the postlude. At 3:30 o'clock the House of Bishops will be called to order in the old Synod Hall. At the same time the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies will meet in the new Synod hall. Various entertainments have been pre-pared for the visiting clergy and laymen. The Columbia University authorities have prepared an exhibit of fare books and manuscripts illustrative of Church history and especially the history of the Episcopal Church. The Church Socialist League, made up the gr chiefly of Episcopal clergymen and lay-men, wants the Episcopal convention to act on a resolution sent out by 240 Angli-can Bishops in 1908. The matter was discussed at the league conference in St. Mark's Church in the Bowery, which ended yesterday. The Rev. George I. Browne of Lancaster, the Rev. W. N. Guthrie of St. Mark's and many others favored its presentation to this conven-tion. It is as follows: "The (Lambeth, 1998) conference recognizes the ideals of brotherhood which makes the ideals of brotherhood which underly the democratic movement of this century, and remembering our Master's example in proclaiming the inestimable value of every human being in the sight of God, calls upon the Church to show sympathy with the movement in so far as it strives to procure for all just treatment and a real opportunity of living a true human life, and by its sympathy to com-mend to the movement the spirit of our Lord Christ, in whom all hopes of human gociety are bound up."

Eugenics, motherhood, woman's suffrage, attacks on the Episcopal Church's machinery and a protest from women on what was said about divorce laws also were discussed.

taking the view of the Rev. Percy Grant of Ascension Church, said:

"The Episcopal Church makes itself ridiculous by its refusal to remarry divorced persons. The thing the Church ought to do is to impress upon its young people the sanctitly of the marriage vow so they will not want to be divorced. Boys and girls ought to be better trained.

The Church works at the end of the evil, not at its beginning."

Then he spoke in favor of woman suffrage and stirred enthusiasm that made it apparent that the conference was strongly in favor of suffrage.

strongly in favor of suffrage.

But there was objection to what he said about the marrying of divorced persons.

Mrs. Theodore Sedgwick, wife of the rector of Calvary Church, said she and all of her friends desired the Episcopal Church not only to keep its stand in the remarriage of divorced persons but to make its laws even more strict.

The Rev. Irwin Tucker, the Socialist minister, attacked the Episcopal Church for its elaborate machinery, its expenditure of money to little purpose. "The Episcopal Church in New York makes a lot of smoke, but I don't see much product," said he. He declared that 75 percent, of the people who came to St. Mark's forum regarded the churches of New York as clubs for the rich. "AM I INSANE?" ASKS DR. LYMAN, PLUNGER

Original "Get Rich Quick" Man Sends Fervid Appeal From Los Angeles Jail.

PERSECUTED' FOR 2 YEARS

Spent $50,000 a Year to Live, He Says, and Bet $15,000 a Day on the Races.

From the Los Angeles county jail, Califernia, John Grant Lyman, who claimed the title of doctor and who was regarded as the original "get rich quick" man of Wall Street, has sent an appeal to newspapers and citizens throughout the country for what he terms "justice." He has sent out broadcast a booklet entitled "Am I Insane?" in which he insists he is perfectly rational, but that after what he has endured n two years of confinement it would be no arrprise if he were crazy. The burden of Dr. Lyman's "brochure, as he calls it, and which he has dedicated to his jailer, is that he was arrested illegally and has been denied a trial. Because of the complaints he has written to newspapers, President Wilson, the Atterney-General, Viscount Haldane and others, he says, an effort now is being made to declare . Therefore the title of his appeal. Familiar Figure on Street.

Not many years ago Dr. Lyman was a familiar figure in Wall Street. He was born in Phelps, N. Y., became a specialist on ear diseases, turned to promoting stocks and amassed a fortune. He made half a million dollars out of the International Zinc Company, but as a result of the notoriety he got out of that promotion scheme he gave up his seats on the Stock Exchange and on the Paris Bourse

He drifted next to Paris and Other big cities, promoting various enterprises and narrowly escaping arrest. He was ar-rested in Los Angeles two years ago on a charge of using the United States mails to defraud by selling land in Panama.

"Dear Reader:" begins the appeal, "tell Kell me candidly after perusing what follows if The you believe it possible that such injustice could be done any citizen of these great | Kelly was not arrested. | Helen Becker, 3 years old, of University

Thrown Into a Dungeon.

Dr. Lyman then describes the prosperity in which he was living in Los Angeles and of the raid on his offices. "I was seized in my rooms in San Francisco without warrant by men not authorized to make arrests and placed in a dungeon, one of the vilest spots mortal man was ever lodged in. Here I was kept nearly twenty-four hours without food friends and then taken out and arrested.

"Meanwhile these men who had seized me returned to my rooms and stripped them of every valuable I possessed to the value of $25,000, no part of which has been ccounted for.

Lyman says he was urged to plead guilty, offered a light sentence if he would do so and threatened with more and more delay if he refused. "Do you wonder that I am not insane?" he writes.

In defence of himself he writes:
"For years I was one of the biggest bet tors on the American turf. I suppose there have been two hundred times in my life when I bet $15,000 in a single day, lost it and absolutely forgot about the trans-action. When you consider too that for twenty-five years my living expenses ex ceeded $50,000 a year, to allege that I in-tended to defraud some one out of $14,000

Lyman appeals to his readers to write to him or their Representative in Con gress in the prisoner's behalf.
